

Regano's Roman Coin

1004 East Brady Street

Windows were uncovered, a warm color palette applied and four large first floor windows were re-opened to welcome the busy street activity. This building has undergone a huge transformation in the way that it has created a presence for itself on the street.

